Examination Regulations, Grading Scale, and Academic Eligibility

DOCUMENT TITLE: Examination Regulations, Grading Scale, and Academic Eligibility
DOCUMENT TYPE: exam_regulation
EFFECTIVE DATE: Fall Semester 2025 | VERSION: 3.0

SECTION 1: GRADING SYSTEM AND CGPA REQUIREMENTS

1.1 Apex Academic University utilizes a 4.0 grading scale: Grade A (90-100%): 4.0 Grade Points (Excellent); Grade B (80-89%): 3.0 Grade Points (Good); Grade C (70-79%): 2.0 Grade Points (Satisfactory); Grade D (60-69%): 1.0 Grade Point (Passing); Grade F (<60%): 0.0 Grade Points (Failure).

1.2 Undergraduate students must maintain a minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 2.0 to remain in Good Academic Standing.

1.3 Postgraduate students must maintain a minimum CGPA of 3.0 for degree qualification.

SECTION 2: ACADEMIC PROBATION AND DISMISSAL

2.1 An undergraduate student whose CGPA drops below 2.0 at the end of any semester will be placed on Academic Probation for the subsequent semester.

2.2 Students on Academic Probation are restricted to a maximum course load of 12 credit hours per semester.

2.3 Failure to raise the CGPA to 2.0 after two consecutive semesters on Academic Probation results in Academic Dismissal from the university.

SECTION 3: RE-EXAMINATION AND MAKE-UP EXAMS

3.1 Make-up final examinations are granted solely for documented emergency hospitalizations or bereavement of an immediate family member.

3.2 A student who fails a course with a Grade 'D' or 'F' may attempt a Re-Examination in the summer session, subject to a maximum grade cap of 'C' (2.0 GP).

3.3 Applications for grade re-evaluation or re-checking must be submitted within 14 calendar days of grade publication, accompanied by a $30 processing fee per paper.
