APEX ACADEMIC UNIVERSITY

Faculty Code of Conduct and Professional Responsibilities

DOCUMENT TITLE: Faculty Code of Conduct and Professional Responsibilities
DOCUMENT TYPE: faculty_policy
EFFECTIVE DATE: Fall Semester 2025 | VERSION: 3.0

SECTION 1: OFFICE HOURS AND STUDENT CONSULTATION

1.1 Full-time faculty members must hold a minimum of 4 scheduled office hours per week dedicated to student advisement and course consultation.

1.2 Office hours must be posted on the course syllabus and uploaded to the Learning Management System (LMS) within the first week of the semester.

1.3 Faculty members must respond to student emails and academic inquiries within 48 business hours.

SECTION 2: SYLLABUS DISTRIBUTION AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

2.1 Faculty members are required to distribute a comprehensive course syllabus during the first class session of the semester.

2.2 The syllabus must clearly define grading criteria, examination schedules, assignment deadlines, and attendance rules.

2.3 Any modification to the grading weights or exam dates during the semester requires written approval from the Department Head and unanimous consent of enrolled students.

SECTION 3: ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND GRADING TIMELINES

3.1 Faculty members must evaluate and return mid-term examination results and feedback within 10 business days of exam completion.

3.2 All cases of suspected academic misconduct, plagiarism, or exam cheating must be formally reported to the University Disciplinary Committee within 3 business days with supporting evidence.

3.3 Faculty are strictly prohibited from accepting personal gifts valued over $25 from current students to prevent conflict of interest.